ABOUT THE FOUNDATION FOR OPEN GOVERNMENT

We are the New Mexico Foundation for Open Government (FOG), a nonprofit, nonpartisan, member-supported statewide organization solely dedicated to protecting your right to know. We educate, advocate and enforce Sunshine Laws to promote better transparency and accountability for the benefit of all New Mexicans. We serve journalists, business professionals, government employees, elected officials and everyday citizens, helping them understand and exercise their rights and responsibilities under New Mexico's open government laws.

ABOUT THE FIRST AMENDMENT DIXON LUNCH

Our annual luncheon draws up to 250 prominent and influential guests from the law, media, government and business communities. We celebrate open government successes and honor local transparency champions with the William S. Dixon First Amendment Freedom Award – given in memory of the late Bill Dixon, a brilliant attorney and passionate defender of the First Amendment.

ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

FOG is honored to welcome Ann Cooper, an award-winning journalist and foreign correspondent with more than 25 years of radio and print reporting experience. Since 2006 Ms. Cooper has been a member of the faculty of Columbia University's Graduate School of Journalism, where she teaches reporting, writing and international journalism. Her coverage of South Africa's first all-race elections in 1994 won NPR a duPont Columbia silver baton for excellence in broadcast journalism. She has been an Edward R. Murrow fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations.

ABOUT SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The First Amendment Dixon Lunch is the New Mexico Foundation for Open Government's most important annual fundraiser. In this critical election year, we would be grateful for your support to continue our work defending, improving and expanding public access to information. A portion of each sponsorship is a tax-deductible charitable donation to FOG, directly supporting our hotline, training seminars, legislative lobbying, legal work and other vital programs.
