Cause No. CV-2010-00075

vs.

HONDO MUNICIPAL SCHOOL DISTRICT,

Defendant.

STIPULATED MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT

COMES NOW Plaintiff, Gabriel Polaco, by and through counsel of record, J. ROBERT BEAUVAIS, P.A., by J. Robert Beauvais and for his motion states:

- 1. Defendant has answered and alleged Hondo Valley Schools is not a proper party and Plaintiff should have sued the Hondo Valley School Board.
- 2. Enclosed is a proposed form of amended complaint as required by the rules of civil procedure.
- 3. Concurrence of opposing counsel was sought and he does concur.

4. Argument

Amendment of pleadings are favored in the absence of a showing of prejudice. Rule 1-015 NMRA 2010; Amica Mutual Ins. Co. v. McRostie 2006 NMCA 046 cert denied, 2006 NMCERT 4.

5. Defendant cannot show prejudice as the complaint was adequate under notice pleading; no scheduling order has been set and not trial set in this matter.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays the court for its order allowing amendment of his complaint and for such other and further relief as to the court appears just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted:

J. ROBERT BEAUVAIS, P.A.

AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF INSPECTION OF PUBLIC RECORDS ACT

COMES NOW Plaintiff, Gabriel Polaco, by and through counsel of record,

J. ROBERT BEAUVAIS, P.A., by J. Robert Beauvais and for his complaint states:

- 1. This action is authorized by the New Mexico Inspection of Public Records Act, §14-2-1 et seq NMSA 1978.
- 2. Plaintiff is a resident of Lincoln County and subject to the personal jurisdiction of the court.
- 3. Defendant, Hondo Municipal School District Board of Education is a New Mexico public school district elected board with its place of business in Lincoln County, New Mexico. The Board has the capacity to be sued on behalf of the District.
- 4. On January 8, 2010 Plaintiff, through counsel, requested public documents in order to determine the basis for Plaintiff's separation from employment. See letter attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

- 5, Defendant did not respond or request additional time for response as required by law.
- The failure to respond constitutes a denial as anticipated by the IPRA. 6.
- The court should order Defendant to produce the records in the manner 7. required by law.
- 8. Plaintiff is entitled to his statutory damages, costs and attorney fees.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays the court for its order to produce the records requested under the IPRA; a finding Defendant violated the IPRA; award damages and statutory attorneys fees and costs of this action; and for such other and further relief as to the court appears just and proper.
